

Key Investor Information Document

This document represents the key investor information on Raiffeisen Invest Euro Fund. This document does not constitute a marketing information. The information is required by Law to help you understand the nature and the risks associated with investing in this fund. You are advised to read it, in order to be informed before making the decision to invest or not in this fund.

INVESTMENT FUND RAIFFEISEN EURO is an Open ended Collective Investment Undertaking with public offer, managed by Raiffeisen Invest – Managing Company of Private Pension Funds and Collective Investment Undertakings sh.a

Fund units are not secured from the deposit insurance scheme; investment in Raiffeisen Invest Euro Fund is not guaranteed; the Fund does not rely on any other outside entities to secure liquidity and stability of net asset value, and the potential risk of losing the principal investment lies with the investor.

Objective and Investment Policy *

The Fund objective is to be liquid and to increase the return on investment in medium term, while conserving the level of capital. The assets of the fund are invested in 2 asset classes: Debt securities and Money market / cash equivalents.

The Fund invests in Debt Securities, issued or guaranteed by the Government of the Republic of Albania up to 60%, in Debt Securities issued or guaranteed by other sovereign countries traded in regulated markets or official stock exchanges of EU countries or any other state allowed by AFSA up to 20%, in units of investment fund as another form of diversification. The fund may also invest in debt securities issued by local authorities or companies, traded in regulated markets or stock exchanges up to 30%. The Fund's assets may consist of short-term bank deposits, cash in current accounts and reverse repurchase agreements for the purpose of liquidity management up to 80% of the fund's assets. The fund determines the nature of asset investments in accordance with the applicable legal framework.

The Fund is managed without reference to a benchmark. If derivative financial instruments are used, the goal will be to mitigate risks and achieve investment policy objectives, but factors such as the liquidity of the instrument on which the derivative is based and the volatility of its value may affect the performance of the fund.

Fund revenues are not distributed but are instead re-invested in the Fund. The fund is denominated in Euro. Investments and redemptions are made in Euro. The redemption of Fund Units can be done at any time upon investor request. The redemption is made within the legal deadline of 7 days from the day of receipt of a valid request for sale.

The performance of the Fund and consequently the value of the investment can fluctuate depending on market conditions. Fluctuations in the interest rates of the financial instruments in which the fund invests are the main factor that affects the performance of the fund. Portfolio transaction costs do not have a material impact on the performance of the fund.

Recommendation

This fund may not be suitable for investors who intend to withdraw from the fund within 2 years.

The fund should not be used as a current account, but rather as a medium-term investment with the purpose of securing a satisfactory return and asset diversification. A very short-time horizon can result in an unsatisfactory rate of return.

Risk and Return Profile

Low Risk

Typically low return

High Risk

Typically high return

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
---	---	---	---	---	---	---

- The indicator of synthetic risk and return is intended to give the investor an idea of the fund unit price volatility based on performance history. This indicator corresponds to an integer which is used to rank the fund risk profile from level 1 to 7, according to the level of volatility increase.
- The historical data used to calculate the indicator may not constitute a complete assurance of the future risk profile.
- The indicated risk category is not guaranteed and may change over time.
- The lowest category does not mean that the investment is riskless.
- Based on the historical data of the fund returns during the last 5 years, the projected risk profile of the fund belongs to category 3 of the synthetic risk and return indicator (SRRI = 3).

Material risks which are not fully accounted for in the synthetic risk and return indicator:

Credit Risk : this risk is related to the possibility that the issuer of a financial instrument, part of the Fund's assets, may not be able to partially or fully repay all its obligations, which would have a negative impact on the value of the Fund's assets. This risk increases when the Fund is exposed to securities with “non-investment grade” rating.

Liquidity Risk: represents the probability that a financial asset cannot be sold promptly and at market price.

Counterparty Risk: the risk that a payment in a transfer system is not settled or is subject to delay. This risk is also related to the probability that the counterparty is unable to fulfill its obligations in accordance with the conditions of an agreement or predetermined transaction.

Operational Risk: the risk of losses of the Fund caused by human or system errors within the management company, by the existence of inadequate internal processes, by legal or documentation errors, as well as by marketing, evaluation and payment procedures on behalf of the Fund.
